

North Carolina
Division of Public Health
Early Hearing Detection and Intervention
Program
Child Health Speech Language Consultants

Hospital Resource

- * Support for data collection
- * Support for maintaining and improving EHDI program
- * Provide a “safety net” for EHDI program between hospital and community resources

Family Support

- * Support family through initial diagnostic appointment
- * Consult regarding communication development
- * Support with educational planning for child and family

Community Liaison

- * Provide communication consultation and training to community agencies
- * Promote public awareness regarding EHDI program and communication development
- * Identify and collaborate with community resources for children with hearing and communication needs

Contact us: www.ncnewbornhearing.org (contact us link)
 (800) 737-3028