

Course Planner/Instructional Personnel Relationship Disclosure Form

In compliance with American Speech-Language Hearing Association's Continuing Education Board's Requirements, the Department of Communicative Disorders & Deaf Education (COMDDE) at Utah State University (USU) requires course planners and instructional personnel to disclose information regarding any relevant financial and nonfinancial relationships related to course content prior to and during course planning.

Based on the information provided, Brynne Davies, the COMDDE CE Program Administrator, will engage the course planner/instructional personnel in a guided interview process which seeks to understand how the relevant financial or nonfinancial relationship may influence the content of the course.

Instructor personnel and course planners will be finalized only after this form has been received and reviewed by Brynne Davies. (See page 5 for the process used to review, resolve and disclose relevant relationships.)

Instructions: Provide the information requested ensuring that all relevant financial and nonfinancial relationships including those in your biography are disclosed on this form.

Course Planner/Instructional Personnel Relationship Disclosure Form –Process for Review, Resolution and Disclosure (FOR PROVIDER USE ONLY)

Review of Information Disclosed by Course Planners and Instructional Personnel

Step 1. Provider’s representative reviews the disclosure form, the learner outcomes, the individual’s biography or resume and all other course related materials.

Step 2. Provider’s representative identifies any questions about the disclosure information.

Step 3. Provider’s representative contacts the planner or instructional personnel to discuss the disclosure information provided.

Step 4. Provider’s representative determines if the individual (check one):

- has financial and/or nonfinancial relationships relevant to the course content and a resolution process is required. (Go to “Resolution of Disclosed Relevant Relationships.”)
- X has no relevant financial or nonfinancial relationships to the course content and no resolution process is required. (If instructional personnel, Go to “Disclosure to Learners.” If course planner, stop.)
- has disclosed relationships that are not relevant to the course content and no resolution process is required. (If instructional personnel, Go to “Disclosure to Learners.” If course planner, stop.)

Resolution of Disclosed Relevant Relationships

Check the methods used to resolve the identified relevant relationship(s) and enhance transparency.

X Determined that disclosing the relevant relationship(s) to learners was sufficient to minimize potential conflict of interest.

Used a peer review process (process by which materials are reviewed by experts in that topic area to ensure the data support the conclusions before they are accepted for presentation or publication). If necessary, instructional personnel will be required to revise content based on recommendations from the peer review.

Altered the control over the course content by:

- Changing the focus of the content so that it does not relate to the relevant relationship
- Changing the content/topic of the individual’s educational assignment so that it does not relate to the relevant relationship
- Limiting the individual’s content to a report without practice recommendations (if individual was funded by a commercial company to perform research, the individual’s presentation may be limited to research data and results)
- Limiting the role of the individual to reporting practice recommendations based on formal structured review of the literature with the inclusion and exclusion criteria stated (evidence-based)

1. Information Needed

If an instructor has a financial or other relationship (non-financial) in any organization that may have a direct interest in the subject matter of the presented session, the audience should be made aware of the relationship in advance of the presentation. In this way any potential conflict of interest will be identified openly so attendees have full disclosure of the facts and may form their own judgments about the presentation. Conflicts of interest may be real or perceived, and any potential for financial or personal gain deriving from the reported work may constitute a conflict of interest. It is the responsibility of the submitter(s) to report any real or perceived financial or non-financial conflict of interest.

The instructor has nothing to disclose (skip to question #5)

The instructor has disclosure(s) to report (complete questions #2, 3, 4 & 5)
